Thank You

At the Auction, you were able to buy food items such as baked goods, beef and pork cuts, plus much more. There were also various quilts. There were services available from local businesses and students submitted certificates to babysit, do lawn work, bake cookies etc. By 10 pm, the last item was sold with Dwight and Janell Duwa who did a good job of selling all the items.

At the Potato Bar, we served around 300 people. The gross income between the meal and the Auction was $22,473. We want to thank everyone who participated in this fundraiser, whether you donated money for the expenses, baked pies for the meal and the Auction, or donated items for the Auction. Without the help of others, we would not be able to make it a profitable fundraiser. Thank you and God bless!

Basketball

This basketball season has been unlike any that I have ever played before. We started off slow with 2 losses. Then we won the next 2 games. After that our point guard Justin fractured his pelvis. Without him we struggled to find our rhythm again. It really wasn't until the Chicago Tournament that we began playing as a team. We still struggled, but it began to seem like we knew what we had to do individually to help our team succeed. We just had to execute. By the time the Pathway Tournament came around Justin was back, but still not in full stride. Usually by the end of the season you know how good your team is, but in our case it is still hard to tell. As soon as I think I know about how good we are, we change. There are teams we have lost to that we know we can beat. For instance we beat Independence by 10 at home, but at the DMI Tournament we lost to them by 20. It seems our skill varies more from game to game than it has in past years. It has been an unpredictable senior year, but that's what makes it exciting.

Alumni Corner

I have been attending Victory Bible College in Tulsa Oklahoma. This is my first year studying worship ministry, and it's been an awesome journey of growth, both in knowledge and in my relationship with Christ. We have been learning things like music theory, music technology, team leadership, and much more. Wednesdays and Fridays, we go to classes that are just in what our major, or track would be. Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays are core Biblical classes of getting the Word of God poured into us. Those classes change on whether you are a first year or a second-year student. Everyone gets opportunities to do hands on ministry in the field they are studying, and are required service hours every week. As worship students, you get put on a worship team, and each team gets to lead worship in the morning once a week. It's been exciting and full of good change. I am constantly getting out of my comfort zone. I am thankful for a school like Pathway that prepared me for this, and I am constantly looking back, and seeing how blessed I am to have such a strong spiritual influence, both in high school, and now in college.

VALENTINES PARTY

This year's Valentine's Party was really lively. I am on student council so I helped plan the party, and I was in charge of the younger kids games. I had a really great time playing with all the little kids. We played games like Duck-Duck Goose, Follow the Leader, and Red-Light-Green-Light. My favorite part about the party was the group games. My favorite game was Fire on the Mount, because it combines both the little kids and the big kids. I think it was really interesting being a part of student council and planning the party. It gave me a new perspective rather than just attending it because I saw how much work goes into making the party a success.
